V. Public Comment

VI. Business
   a. Cost Allocation – Discussion
      HSU Budget Office representatives will present the Cost Allocation model that HSU uses to charge auxiliaries and self-support areas on campus for the shared resources all campus partners benefit from, like IT services, square footage, and mail services. Associated Students has a Business Services Management Agreement with HSU which has the A.S. costs from the model incorporated. The A.S. President, A.S. Administrative Vice President and A.S. Executive Director are the signers on this agreement. The Finance Committee will consider the history and the projected costs to help inform their budgetary recommendations. (See the 2019-20 Allocation Workbook, the 2020-21 Allocation Workbook, and the 2021-22 Allocation Workbook)

   b. A.S. Collabs Proposals – Action

Persons who wish to request disability-related accommodations, including sign-language interpreters, should contact Casey Park, A.S. Board Coordinator, at casey@humboldt.edu or call (707) 826-4221. Some accommodations may take up to several weeks to arrange.
The Committee will review any submitted collaborative proposals and consider recommendation on allocations.

c. A.S. Club Grant Requests – Action
The Committee will review any received club grants and consider recommendation on allocations.

d. A.S. Core Program: Initial Projected Costs - Discussion
The Committee will discuss the working document which projects the potential costs for A.S. program employment. They will also review the A.S. Reserves Policy and discuss how the reserves could be used to support the initiation of offices and spaces for Core Programs.
