Program Presentations
A. Sustainable Living Arts & Music Festival (Sierra Gjerde)
Sierra Gjerde, a Sustainable Living Arts and Music Festival (SLAM Fest) Co-Director, was present on behalf of the request. Gjerde explained that she has been involved with the SLAM Fest over the past four years. Gjerde noted that the SLAM Festival is taking a new direction this year and events will happen throughout April 22nd – May 1st, 2011. This year the SLAM Fest will include a sustainability conference with more keynote speakers. Days of environmental action will also be included and students will participate in activities such as ocean awareness and measuring their own carbon footprint. Field trips will be offered locally so that students could learn more about local community organizations such as Friend of the Dunes, the Environmental Protection Information Center and local community gardens. Gjerde also noted that SLAM Fest is making efforts to make the event as collaborative as possible and is holding open meetings to gain input from interested students.

B. Humboldt Film Festival (John Manning)

John Manning, a Humboldt Film Festival (HFF) Co-Director, was present on behalf of the program. Manning stated that the HFF will be held May 1st – 7th, 2011 and that the organization has already begun to confirm their judging panel for the festival. Calls for submission have already gone out and the group has also begun to solicit donations from local businesses. The HFF’s theme this year is Revolution: One Film at a Time. The HFF is the oldest student run film festival in the country and is in its 44th year. One of the goals of the program is to strive to make it completely student run.
